

3 Reasons to Vote for

Todd Hayes

for Cherokee County
Solicitor-General

“Because of Todd’s experience and knowledge, he will be ready on Day One to lead this office into the future.”

— Jessica K. Moss
Current Solicitor-General

1 Make Every Cherokee Street Safe.

Making Cherokee’s streets safe starts with proper impaired driving enforcement. Cherokee citizens must be able to get in their cars and go where they need to go without having to worry about intoxicated drivers. With Todd’s DUI enforcement background, he’s uniquely positioned to make that a reality.

2 Work in Partnership with Police.

Todd believes in working with the police and building relationships. The Solicitor-General’s office should make sure that police work is properly presented in a court of law. Police should feel confident that prosecutors are doing their best for them. That leads to better results across the board.

3 Give Every Victim a Voice.

Every victim of domestic violence should have a voice. Often, this type of crime leaves victims in a place where they don’t even want to defend themselves. The job of prosecutors is to step alongside them and help them find their voices again. Todd doesn’t ever want victims of domestic violence to come through his office and feel like they aren’t important — because they are.
